

Male Business Leader of the Year Award Application

The Male Business Leader of the Year Award recognizes Male Business Leaders in the Prince Albert & District area who ensure that their employees are at the heart of their success. Entrants are expected to show how they invest in their staff, engage and include them in the business and outline what it is they do that makes for a happy and healthy workforce. This could include providing a supportive working environment via adopting family-friendly initiatives, developing positive measures to enable employee development, and taking a proactive approach to recognizing and rewarding employee contributions.

Applicants are judged using a points system. Please keep information clear and complete, avoid the use of abbreviations and jargon. Judging will be focused only on information provided in the application. The judges consist of individuals who may not be familiar with your business.

Unanswered questions are awarded zero points; please ensure you have answered all the questions

Please Note: Should your business become a finalist for a Samuel McLeod Business Award, some of the details contained in your application may be used in promotions for both your business and the awards.
